AMERICAN LEGION FAVORS SALVATION ARMY WORK

Commander Bell Appeals For Home Service Work May 10 to 20th

In recognition of the work of the Salvation Army among the boys in the front line of trenches of France and Belgium, the American Legion of Kentucky has given unqualified endorsement to the Second Salvation Army Home Service Appeal, May 10th to 20th.

The boys of the American Legion have not forgotten the hardships shared with them by the girls who cooked cakes and pies while the scream of shells and shrapnel made nights an inferno. They have not forgotten the women who braved the machine gun fire of the Germans to carry hot coffee to the fighters during the zero nights. Many of those girls who shouldered the big heavy water yokes, with ten gallon carriers of hot coffee swung from each end are still in France, their graves marked by the Cross of Honor, and among the poppy fields of Flanders.

Commander Ulric Bell, of the American Legion, has sent the following letter to J. Paul Swain, State Director, of the Salvation Army Appeal.

April 15, 1920.

Mr. Paul Swain, Director
Salvation Army Campaign,
Louisville, Kentucky.

My dear Mr. Swain:

Attention of the Executive Committee of the American Legion of Kentucky having been called to the present Campaign of the Salvation Army for funds in Kentucky, I am directed by the body to address to you this communication in which the American Legion officially recognizes the Salvation Army as an organization to which the American people generally, and service men in particular, owe a great debt of gratitude. It will not be necessary for the American Legion to say to the former soldier that the Salvation Army is a good thing and deserves support. It is already known to you that the 'Johnny Buck' has learned to respect the 'Sally Ann' under a stress that has tried the souls of both. Your soldiers of the Salvation Army shared in common, during the late war, the same risks and dangers faced by those who now make up the American Legion. Friendship wrought in that crucible will endure beyond any artificial bolstering.

It is the hope of the State Department of the Legion that the Salvation Army will meet with the greatest success in its work and its conviction that one hundred and twenty units of The American Legion throughout Kentucky will stand shoulder to shoulder with the Army in all good things.

Yours very truly,

ULRIC BELL,
Department Commander.

DEMOCRATS HOLD COUNTY CONVENTION SATURDAY

Endorse Democratic Administration Choose Delegates to State Convention

Pursuant to a call of the Democratic State Committee, the Democrats of Ohio County met at the Court House in Hartford, Ky., on the 1st day of May, 1920, at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Democratic Convention to be held in the City of Louisville on the 4th day of May, 1920. The Convention was called to order by Ozna Shults, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, who stated the object of the meeting. On motion Mr. Shults was then unanimously selected as Permanent Chairman of the Convention and McDowell A. Fogle, Secretary; whereupon the following Committee on Resolutions was appointed, by unanimous consent of the Convention, viz: R. E. Lee Simmerman, Chairman; L. B. Tichenor, W. H. Parks, L. G. Barrett, W. M. Hinton, J. L. Patton and Shelby Rock. Said Committee retired and reported the following resolutions:

1. We, the Democrats of Ohio County, in Convention assembled, do declare: 1st. We endorse the wise, conservative and patriotic Administration of our Nation's President, Woodrow Wilson, and express our deepest sympathy for him in his physical suffering and sincerely hope for his speedy restoration to complete health.

2nd. We point with pride to the many principles of our Party which have been placed on the Statutes of our Country during the two Administrations of President Wilson, viz:

1. A Currency Law so complete and fair to all interests that even the Republicans dare not criticize it.
2. The enactment of a Land Loan Law for the Farmer, with its inestimable benefits to that large class of our people.
3. A workable law for the improvement of Public Highways.
4. The removal of the Tariff from politics by placing it on a firm and sensible basis.
5. The election of United States Senators by the people.
6. The Parcel Post Law thereby relieving the people from the grasp of the extortionate express companies.
7. The greatest War of history brought to a successful conclusion in less than two years.

3rd. We endorse unreservedly the League of Nations as formulated and proposed by our President and regard it as the greatest forward movement in the interest of the Peace of the world and of our common Humanity that has ever been proposed, and charge that the present relative low prices of some commodities of our farmers, in this locality, particularly tobacco, are directly attributable to the action of the Republican majority in the Senate in preventing, by petty partisan methods, the Treaty of Peace and the League of Nations from becoming a reality.

4th. We send our delegates to the State Convention uninstructed and recommend to them that they vote to send an uninstructed delegation to the National Convention at San Francisco on June 29, 1920. We direct our delegates to the State Convention to vote as a unit on all matters coming before the Convention. We recommend that the following named Democrats be selected as Delegates and Alternates to said Convention, viz:

Delegates

J. S. Glenn, Rowan Holbrook, R. E. Lee Simmerman, G. B. Likens, W. H. Parks, W. H. Barnes T. E. Cooper, R. T. Collins, J. A. Howard, J. M. Porter, E. L. Bennett, C. M. Crowe, A. C. Porter, McDowell A. Fogle, Ozna Shults, John H. Barnes, John B. Wilson, H. P. Taylor, L. G. Barrett, A. B. Tichenor, L. B. Tichenor, J. L. Patton, W. M. Addington, G. M. Burton, J. P. Sandefur, S. J. Tichenor, H. T. Holbrook and Dr. C. Ross Bennett.

Alternates

James C. Bennett, W. M. Hinton, Shelby Rock, H. A. Baird, George Vincent, F. W. Clark, R. C. Stewart, Horace Martin, R. D. Robertson, Andrew Alford, W. B. Taylor, Otho Dexter, Alvin Ross, R. O. Neel, J. H. Addington, Clarence Patton, Rufus

Williams, C. B. Everly, Erk Fulkerson, Lon Phillips, J. H. Lloyd, Forrest P. Bell, H. J. Milligan, J. L. Smith, H. C. Acton, Herbert Bean, L. L. Porter, Raymond Nall and all other good Democrats.

The report of the Committee was, upon motion, unanimously adopted by the Convention. There being no further business, the Convention then adjourned.

OZNA SHULTS, Ch'm'n. Convention.
Attest:
MCDOWELL A. FOGLE, Secretary.

BANQUET FOR SENIOR BEAVER DAM HIGH SCHOOL

One of the most brilliant affairs of the season was a banquet given at the New Her Inn, last Friday evening in honor of the Seniors of Beaver Dam High School, by Miss Nora Jackson, the music and dramatic instructor. She was assisted by her students both in music and expression, in receiving the Seniors. Music was furnished by the students during the evening.

At the appointed hour, the guests were served with a delicious four course dinner; a toast was given for the Seniors by Miss Jackson, who was toast master. 'The Prophecy' was written and read by Miss Lucile Burton. It was very clever and we hope that it will come true. Some very interesting poetry was read by Miss Corinne Taylor. This was written by the different students. Miss Gladys Likens wrote the 'Class Will' and delivered it in a very expressive way. One of the members of the Senior class was to have made a speech, but owing to the fact that the toast master learned that said member had willed all her expression, gestures, etc. to the Freshmen class, she was not called upon. The guests departed at a late hour, each expressing in a charming way, the good time they had.—Special.

DESERTER FATALLY SHOT WHILE ATTEMPTING ESCAPE

Private Ed Doss Fails to Halt When Ordered by Captives at Beaver Dam

Pvt. Ed Doss, a deserter from the U. S. Army, was mortally wounded, while attempting to escape from his captor, Pvt. Odie Allen, at Beaver Dam, Monday night.

It is said that Doss' home is in Central City, and that he was being taken to Camp Knox, when seeing a possibility of escape, he fled from his guards and attempted to make his get-a-way by boarding a coal train. Pvt. Allen fired at his legs and ordered him to halt, but to no avail, and he then took deliberate aim and fired, the bullet penetrating Doss' brain.

The injured man was cared for at the Commercial Hotel until Tuesday morning, when he was put on board the fast train for Camp Knox. His death occurred before reaching that place.

SHELBY COUNTY FARMER IS SHOT TO DEATH BY LOUISVILLE ASSOCIATE

Louisville, Ky., May 3.—Edward H. Wise, forty-eight years old, a Shelby county farmer, was shot and killed by Thomas M. Mitchell, thirty-two years old, of Louisville, a business associate, while in the office of a tobacco broker at 110 South Twelfth street. Wise was shot eight times and died soon after. Mitchell was arrested half an hour later. Three women, with the men at the time in the office, were also held by the police. The men and women were matching coins, it is said, and had been drinking.

JOKE ON THE PUBLIC

Ed Franks' scheme to advertise the United States National Bank at Owensboro, last Saturday, was unique, novel and effective. In fact, the unsuspecting public swallowed the hook, line and all, while his co-workers helped to yank the catch when the cork went under. It was some cheap advertising and places the Owensboro newspapers in a class to themselves—There's a reason.

DEMOCRATIC SENATORS MAY REVIVE TREATY

Action By Mild Reservation Men Mark Election of Underwood As Leader

Washington.—Democrats of the Senate elected Senator Underwood, Alabama, their leader. Selection was by unanimous vote and ended several months' regency by Senator Hitchcock, acting leader since the death of Senator Martin, Virginia. Mr. Hitchcock last week withdrew from the contest, and proposed Mr. Underwood's name.

Revival of treaty talk in the Senate was the immediate result of Mr. Underwood's election. Mild reservationist Republicans said they would discuss among themselves a plan to get a round robin of Senators willing to vote for ratification with certain reservations.

This plan may be suggested to Mr. Underwood with the request that he co-operate in its execution, with a view to sending word to President Wilson, should a canvass of the Senate show that 64 votes could be obtained for some programme, that if he would resubmit the treaty it would be ratified.

Some of the mild reservationists have hoped all along that Mr. Underwood would be chosen leader, because they felt that he would lend himself more easily to a new compromise effort than Mr. Hitchcock. Among this group there is a disposition to regard unfavorably the declaration of peace by resolution.

Immediately after electing Mr. Underwood, Democrats discussed briefly the peace resolution. It was tentatively decided that a caucus would be held later to take up the resolution and other questions with a view to having an agreement, if possible, of the entire minority.

BRYAN'S DELEGATION PROVES PARTLY "WET"

Washington, April 28.—Exultation on the part of bone dry prohibitionists over the success of W. J. Bryan in Nebraska may turn to disappointment soon when it becomes known that the Bryan delegates elected were not all "bone dry."

Members of the Nebraska delegation were informed that though every previous report from Nebraska indicated the state had supported Mr. Bryan in his "bone dry" campaign, three of the Bryan delegates elected were champions of the "light wines and beer" cause.

Defection of these three delegates on this issue would make the delegation stand nine for light wines and beer and seven for "bone dry" prohibition, and as the delegation would have the unit rule, the vote of Nebraska on this question in the national convention would be for "light wines and beer."

"MARSE HENRY" DRAWS LINE ON "DRY CAROUSE"

New York, April 29.—From Kentucky, where the mournful rum-bound bays disconsolately in a waste of deserted distilleries and minefields heavy with weeds, there came a letter from a frank and honest man the first to admit the real reason why public dinners have lost their appeal to him.

Of course, the letter was from Marse Henry Watterson. He informed the New York Press club, which plans a dinner for May 1, that "the thought of a long journey to a dry carouse is little short of appalling."

Marse Henry suggested an enterprise of a more public-spirited nature. "Why don't you get up an insurrection?" he asked. He analyzed his own characteristics at 80 years as follows:

I am a prohibitionist—with modifications; a female suffragist—with limitations; but not wholly a dam'd fool. I am still, let me say, one of the boys—a bit battered and out of the ring—but I can sit up and take notice, and I like to see it going on. Good-bye, boys; good luck and God bless you!"

MOTHER IN FLAMES RESCUES CHILDREN

Lebanon Junction, Ky.—Her clothing in flames from an explosion of gasoline, Mrs. Fred Goodrich ran from her home to a well near by, pumped a bucket of water and returned to the house in time to extinguish the fire before it reached the room occupied by her two sleeping children.

Mrs. Goodrich is believed to be fatally burned.

Mistaking gasoline for kerosene, she poured the explosive on some smouldering embers in the kitchen stove. In an instant the room was filled with flames and her clothing was a mass of fire.

Ignoring her own condition, she got water and fought the fire until it was extinguished. Then she fainted. Her face and body were burned and her hair was burned off. The children did not awaken until neighbors, attracted by the fire, arrived.

ENOUGH BILLS CUT THAT WAS ALL, SHE SAYS

Total Results Gained From Other Medicines Before Taking Trutona, Mrs. Franklin Asserts

Louisville, Ky., May 4.—Another striking bit of proof of Trutona's remarkable reconstructive powers for overcoming after-effects of influenza, pneumonia and the like is to be seen in the following statement made recently by Mrs. A. E. Franklin, Louisville woman of 1359 Preston Street.

"After I had sufficiently recovered from the 'flu' to get out of bed," Mrs. Franklin said, "I found that I was very weak and a dizziness in my head whenever I would walk rendered me unfit to do any kind of work. I had been troubled with constipation for several years before I contracted influenza."

"Well, of course, I tried several different kinds of medicines for my troubles but about the only results I got from them were bills. It seemed that nothing would do me any good. Finally I got a bottle of Trutona and began taking it. To make a long story short, today, I'm free from constipation. In addition to this I feel strong and find I can do more work than I've been able to do for a long time. That's why I recommend Trutona."

Just as Mrs. Franklin did, thousands of people have found Trutona to be everything that is claimed for it as a reconstructive agency system purifier and body invigorant as well as an unsurpassed combatant for stomach, liver and bowel troubles, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like.

Trutona is sold in Hartford, at James H. Williams' Drug store, and in Beaver Dam, Ky., at the Beaver Dam Drug Co. (Advertisement.)

THREE INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICES TO BE ABOLISHED

Louisville, Ky., April 29.—Collector Elwood Hamilton announces that the internal revenue offices at Danville, Middlesboro and Bowling Green are to be abolished May 15 on orders of Commissioner W. W. Williams because Kentucky has an excess of field deputies the number of which is based on the number of income tax returns in the state. Kentucky at first had sixty-four such deputies, but the commissioner has ruled that the number must be cut to fifty-five to conform to the number of returns filed.

The nine deputies will not lose their places altogether, the collector announced, but will be transferred to other divisions of the service. The Danville and Middlesboro offices will be consolidated with Lexington and the Bowling Green office with Louisville.

W. Vernon Richardson will remain at Danville, as information man of the service. T. Tevis Hugelley will continue as zone deputy at Middlesboro, and T. T. Patterson will remain in the same capacity at Bowling Green.

She Feels Fine Now

Aches and pains often indicate kidneys out of order. Your kidneys surely need help—and quickly—when your hands or feet are swollen and you feel dull and sluggish, lose your appetite and your energy and there is a puffy look under the eyes. Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th and Edison St., La Junta, Colo., writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble for sometime. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away. I feel fine now." Adv.

SUFFRAGE VALID, ATTORNEY GENERAL DAWSON HOLDS

Says Kentucky Women Have Right to Vote for Presiden- tial Electors

Frankfort, Ky., April 29.—Women, independent of the ratification of the federal constitutional amendment by the requisite number of states, will have the right to vote for presidential electors in the coming presidential election. This opinion was given George G. Speer, state banking commissioner, by Attorney General Charles I. Dawson, who holds that House bill 429, to provide for woman suffrage in presidential elections, is valid, and that under its provisions women may participate in the presidential election.

Mr. Speer also inquired if women have a right to participate in the Democratic county conventions to be held May 1, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic state convention to be held in Louisville on May 4. On this subject Attorney General Dawson said: "I am in no position to give you an opinion, as I do not have before me either the call or the party rules under which these conventions are to be held."

Text of Dawson Opinion

Attorney General Dawson's opinion following:

"The legislature at its 1920 session passed House bill 429, which gives to women the right to vote in all elections of electors for president and vice president, provided they are citizens of the United States, are twenty-one years of age, have resided in the state one year, in the county six months and in the precinct in which they offer to vote, sixty days next preceding the election, and who have not been convicted in court of competent jurisdiction of treason, felony or bribery in an election, or certain other high misdemeanors. The law makes the same provisions as to excluding those confined in prison under judgment, for some penal offense and idiots and insane persons as is made with reference to male voters.

"Unless, between now and the date of the presidential election, the requisite number of states ratify the federal constitutional amendment giving to women the right to vote, their right to vote in Kentucky will necessarily be determined by the validity of House bill, 429, above referred to.

"Section 2 of Article 11 of the constitution of the United States provides as follows:

"Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in congress; but no senator or representative or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall be appointed an elector."

"It will be observed under this provision of the federal constitution that the power to prescribe the manner in which presidential electors shall be chosen is placed in the legislature of each state. Prescribing the manner in which presidential electors are chosen involves, not only the manner of placing them on the ballot, but necessarily involves prescribing the qualifications of those who vote for such electors.

No Confliction

"Section 145 of the state constitution in no wise conflicts with the provisions of the federal constitution above referred to. Section 145 of the constitution of Kentucky provides, in part, as follows:

"Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of 21 years who has resided in the state one year and in the county six months and the precinct in which he offers to vote sixty days next preceding the election, shall be a voter in said precinct, and not elsewhere.

"The court of appeals, in the case of Atchison vs. Lucas, 83 Kentucky, 435, implicitly held that this constitutional provision as to the qualifications of voters referred to the qualification of voters for those offices created by the constitution. In that opinion the court used this language:

"We do not mean to adjudicate that offices of legislative creation may not be filled by women, or the right of suffrage granted them in certain cases, but, on the contrary, such rights may be conferred. We have been discussing only the provisions of the constitution affecting the right of suffrage and the right to hold office when applied to offices created by the constitution."

"In the case of Crook vs. Bartlett, 155 Kentucky, 306, which involved the right of a woman to hold the office of county superintendent, the court quoted with approval the language quoted from the case above, and in substance held that section 145 referred to the qualifications of voters for offices created by the state constitution.

"In view of the provisions of the federal constitution quoted above, as well as the constitution placed on section 145 of the state constitution, I have no hesitancy in holding that House bill 429 is valid, and that women, under its provisions, will have the right to vote in presidential election this fall, independent of the federal constitutional amendment."

WHO MANAGES THE BUREAU?

If Wall Street controlled the County Farm Bureau you would do well to stay on the outside.

If Big Business were in charge of the County Bureau you would be justified in holding aloof.

If it were conducted by City Folks who have no touch with the country you would be better out than in.

If it were Middlemen you might be suspicious.

But there's no excuse.

The County Farm Bureau is a local organization, manned solely by local men—its entire work for the people of this county.

It is a farmers' organization out and out—of the farmers by the farmers and for the farmers.

Men whom you know—men with whom you probably went to school men who are farmers like yourself and interested in farming are the local officers.

And farmers in charge of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation.

And farmers in charge of the American Farm Federation.

And remember, also, that there are now about 1,500,000 farmers enrolled in the U. S. A.

ONLY TWO REQUIREMENTS—That you are a farmer and are willing to put up a few dollars.

STAND AGAINST SOLDIER BONUS

Is Taken By The United States Chamber Of Commerce

Atlantic City, N. J., April 27.—The United States Chamber of Commerce would go on record as opposed to the granting of a bonus to soldiers who served in the World War by adoption of a resolution submitted for action by the Resolutions committee at the initial session of its eighth annual convention here.

The resolution declared that not only half a million negroes in the South, who probably would receive $500 or $600 each, would immediately quit work until the money was spent but predicted there would be generally an orgy of spending that labor would be disorganized and production decreased.

The chamber also received a report of its National Committee on European finance, in which it was asserted that while American bankers and business men are friendly toward aiding in the rehabilitation of Europe by private investment, no such action can be looked for until peace has been formally concluded and the United States government has adopted a definite policy of sanction and co-operation.

Revision of the excess profits and income taxes so that large investors can afford to put their funds in other than tax free securities is urged in the report, the point being made that only by the freeing of large capital can any appreciable progress toward meeting Europe's needs be made.

Discussing the need for a fixed governmental policy of sanction and co-operation, the report said there was no thought of suggesting that the government alter its policy of not increasing the $10,000,000,000 it already has advanced to European countries.

Never Saw Anything Better

For colds that "hang on" and for lingering coughs that follow the "flu," there is one safe family cough medicine sold from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mrs. A. B. Griffith, Box 154, Andrews, Ind., writes: "Last winter my family all had the 'flu.' I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and never saw anything better. From now on I will not be without it in the house." Don't let children suffer from croup or whooping cough when this reliable remedy can be so easily procured. (Advertisement.)

BANK DEPOSITS SHRUNK BILLION IN TWO MONTHS

High Cost of Living About To Fall Predicted By the Experts

Washington, D. C., April 28.—A shrinkage of almost $1,000,000,000 in bank deposits of the country, with a commensurate shrinkage in the local resources of the national banks, is noted in a compilation by Controller of the Currency Williams, of the reports of the national banks on the call of February 28.

Total deposits in the national banks on February 28 were $16,965,112,000, a reduction in just two months from December 31, of $901,201,000. The December 31 deposits, however, were slightly under the highest ever recorded, and the deposits for February 28, were $1,500,000,000 greater than for approximately the same date a year ago.

Doubled in Six Years

Government experts here see a deep significance in the figures as reflecting the financial and economic trend of the nation. After increasing in great jumps from the very beginning of the European war and practically doubling in six years, bank deposits began to decrease at the end of last year. In the first two months of 1920 the decrease was rapid, and if maintained will bring the 1920 figures below those of 1919.

Earnings Shrinking

Loss in deposits is ascribed to many economic causes, but primarily to a shrinkage of earnings by the people and a decrease in the total volume of business of the country. Labor unrest, strikes, and other disturbances were no doubt large contributing factors, it is pointed out.

In the face of the financial situation, experts here look for a slowing up in purchasing by the general public and a leveling of prices. The cost of living, it is said, has reached its peak, and is on a slow but sure decline through inability of the public to expand further individual credits.

PASTOR INSIST HE TALKS ACROSS SEA BY HYPNOTISM

London, April 29.—The assertion that he is in daily telephatic communication with a friend in America was made by the Rev. A. Reginald Crew, New York clergyman, who is preaching in England at present.

"I am prepared to prove that I can hypnotize myself and send thought waves to a friend in New York and also receive messages from him," said Dr. Crew.

The Weekly Dispatch announces it will make a test of the clergyman's declaration, using its New York correspondent as an intermediary.

TRANSFER SERVICE!

J. E. CURTIS

I ask the patronage of the citizens of Hartford and the traveling public in general for the following reasons:

During the past 3 years, I have tried to serve you well and have made regular trips between Hartford and Beaver Dam, rain or shine, summer and winter, good roads and bad.

Others have not made regular trips and only serve you in good weather.

I charged you only 50c and war tax, through the winter just the same as in summer.

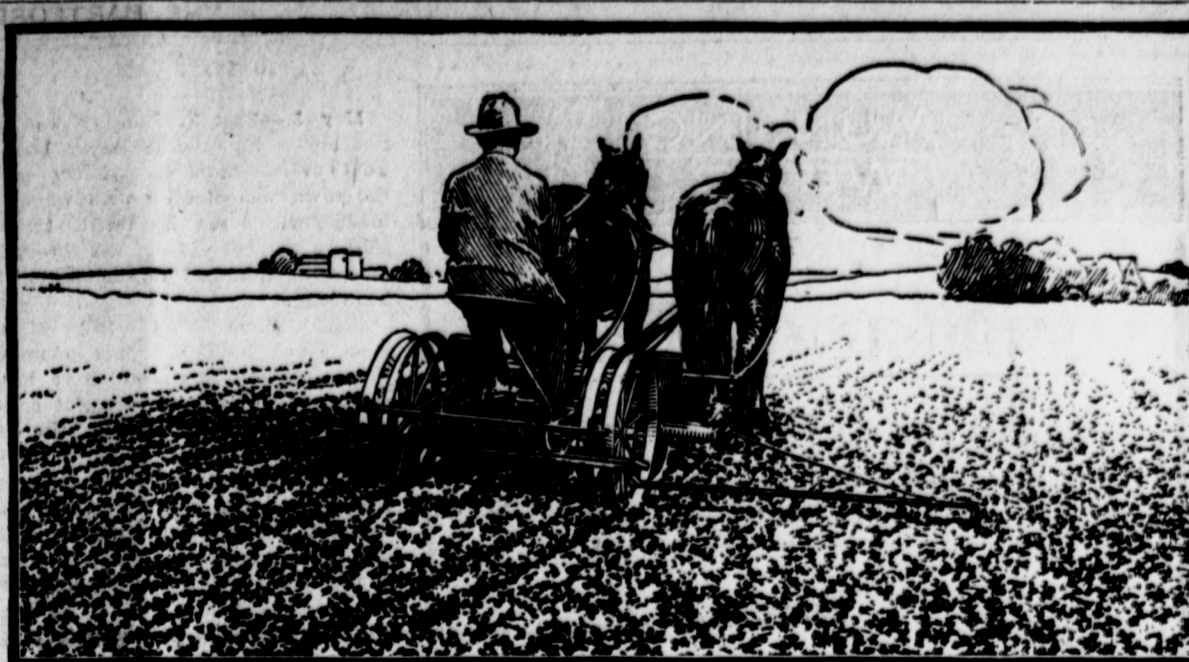

Others are charging 75c.

I have never failed to give Hartford a good word or do its citizens a good deed whenever the opportunity presented itself.

My cars leave Hartford at the following hours: 4 a. m.; 9:40 a. m.; 12:30 p. m.; 2 p. m.; and 7 p. m. Hartford headquarters at Casabier & Taylor's Restaurant.

I sincerely thank you for the many favors of the past and cordially invite your patronage for the future.

An Accurate Corn Planter Is One of Your Best Friends

There is a big difference between the yield of crops planted with an inaccurate planter and one that is accurate. You use the same amount of seed—but the difference in the crop often amounts to as much as five, six or seven—yes, and more—bushels per acre.

Here is a point we want you to think over. If a planter misses only fifteen kernels in every 100 hills, there is a loss of five bushels per acre in the yield.

The accurate planter avoids that loss—it proves to be one of your best friends because it does faithful work and saves you money.

We want to show you the John Deere No. 999 Corn Planter—a planter that has built a first-class reputation because of its accuracy. It is just as accurate as the human hand.

You can plant 2, 3 or 4 kernels without changing seed plates or stopping the team. You can change from hilling to drilling instantly. You get nine different drilling distances without changing the plates.

We will be glad to have you call and see why this planter has been termed the accurate planter. Putting it into your field this year may save you a lot of money when you gather your crop. Let us show it to you at any rate. We'll be glad to see you, even though you aren't ready to buy now.

The Democratic party goes to the people this year on two great issues which should insure its success. The first is the fact that the war was won under a Democratic administration. Whatever mistakes were made are trivial in comparison with the mighty task accomplished, and the accomplishment came under a Democratic president and a Democratic Congress. The other great achievement of the party is its record in domestic legislation. Since Wilson became President in 1913 more important and beneficial legislation has been enacted into law than in the fifty years before that time. Some Democrat may disapprove of this thing done at Washington and another may disapprove of that, but the record, viewed as a whole is so great, that no Democrat is justified in withholding his support from the party this fall.

INTERESTING MEETING OF FARM BUREAU

At the meeting of Ohio County Farm Bureau held at the opera house here, Saturday, about 75 were present and a very interesting session was held. The speaker scheduled did not arrive but, all Kentuckians are speakers, so there was no dearth of oratory.

The new Farm Bureau law was read and thoroughly discussed, and a referendum vote on the measure known as the Nolan bill, was taken. This is the first time in Kentucky, that farmers have had an opportunity to express themselves on matters of national legislation. This Nolan bill was introduced in Congress to provide for the raising of public revenue by a tax upon the privilege of the use and enjoyment of lands of large value. Needless to say the vote against this bill by the farmers of Ohio County, was unanimous.

The Bureau is perfecting plans to make speeches at the various school houses and other places throughout the county with the view to securing additional members.

IMPORTANT MEETING AT COURT HOUSE MAY 7, 1920, 7:30 P. M.

Several of the old students of Dr. Wayland Alexander, deceased, have decided to call a meeting of all his former students now living in Hartford, for the purpose of organizing a monument fund to erect a monument to his memory in Oakwood cemetery. We believe this can be done with small contributions from each of the numerous students that have attended his schools, provided we can get in touch with them over the different sections of the United States. So we call this meeting Friday, May 7, 1920 to get the views of all those interested and to put the plan on foot.

"INSIDE FARM DOPE"

A COLUMN FOR OHIO COUNTY FARMERS SUPPLIED BY EXTRACTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF AGRICULTURE AND YOUR COUNTY AGENT—ASK YOUR COUNTY AGENT

Animal Husbandry

The clover-bloat season is rapidly approaching. The farmer should prepare for such cases by obtaining a quart of formalin solution containing 1-1.2 per cent formalin, or one-half ounce formalin to one quart of water. When an animal has bloated drench with one quart of this solution, place a wooden block in the animal's mouth and, if possible, exercise gently. After the animal is relieved drench it with one pound epsom salts and one-half ounce ground ginger in one pint of tepid water.

On April 12th the Animal Husbandry Department completed the third year of experiments as to the relative merits of corn and sorghum silage. Two lots of ten steers each had received the same supplementary feeds, which were cottonseed meal, which averaged 3.67 lbs. per steer per day throughout the test, 1.92 lbs. of wheat straw and .87 lbs. of oat straw. Shelled corn was fed to each animal during the last 90 days, averaging 10.04 lbs. per steer per day.

The lot receiving corn silage made an average daily gain of 1.90 lbs. and the one receiving sorghum silage made an average daily gain of 1.74 lbs. Figuring cottonseed meal at $78.5 per ton, shelled corn at $1.63 per bushel, wheat straw at $12.90 per ton, oat straw at $15.50 per ton, corn silage at $9.00 per ton and sorghum silage at $9.00 per ton, the gains in the corn silage lot cost $27.86 per hundred-weight, while the gains in the sorghum silage lot cost $30.61 per hundred-weight. The necessary selling price to come out even, crediting pork produced, was $14.35 per hundred-weight in the corn silage lot and $14.67 per hundred-weight in the sorghum silage lot.

In summing up results the Animal Husbandry Department found that on the fifth year average yield of corn silage was 10.52 tons per acre and that of sorghum silage was 16.58 tons per acre, or an increase of 57 per cent in favor of the sorghum silage. It was concluded that sorghum silage is 87 per cent as efficient, pound for pound, in beef production as is corn silage; and when considered from an acre basis the sorghum silage is 30 per cent more economical than corn silage, due to the larger yield of the former.

Since there was an embargo on the shipping of live stock, due to the Railroad Strike, the cattle were not sold to the highest bidder, which had been done the two previous years; instead a committee of buyers was selected and they handed in individual values. These values averaged $11.72 per hundred for the sorghum fed lot and $12.25 per hundred for the corn fed.

Markets

The central wool auction will be held in Lexington June 15th. Arrangements are now being made to secure the best warehouse facilities for the holding of this auction. All county agents, or leaders of wool pools, not having full particulars regarding the method of being represented at the auction, should write to the Department of Markets at once.

The Department of Markets is trying to secure the help of two or three expert wool graders from the Bureau of Markets at Washington. These men will co-operate with the Department of Markets in making an effort to establish the grades of wool as recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Horticulture

Five or six days after apple trees are in full bloom is the time they should be sprayed with the colyx cup spray for the codling moth. This spray should be 1-1.4 gallons of lime sulphur solution to 50 gallons of water plus 1-1.2 pounds arsenate of lead powder or 3 pounds arsenate of lead paste.

Owing to the high prices of all food stuff and the prospects continuing for the same, county agents should urge the planting of extensive gardens in order that the people can produce as many vegetables as possible for their own use.

Who Should Build a Silo?

Only the farmer who has gone in to a permanent live stock system of farming should build a silo. If it is to be used only a year or two it will probably not be profitable. In nearly all cases the farmer who is keeping a herd of twenty-five or more cows, or who feeds a carload or more of beef cattle, can use a silo to advantage. Such men, in fact, can hardly afford not to have a silo.

For the dairyman the silo is even more valuable than for the beef cattle man where fifteen cows or more are kept and where sufficient suitable land is available for raising feed with which to fill it. The silo is most worth while where a large number of cattle are kept and where hay and other roughage is scarce and has to be shipped in from other sections. Silage enables the feeder to cut down both upon the dry roughage and grain feed.

The writer has had occasion to advise many farmers to erect silos. He has also felt called upon in some other cases to advise against the building of silos. That farmer has no business with a silo who has only a few head of cattle to feed or who has insufficient ground available for growing corn or other feed to put into it.

Swat The Early Fly

Soon the fly will be making his advent into our homes.

Much has been said in regard to screening doors and destroying the breeding places. All this is good, but one of the surest campaigns against the housefly is to swat him on his first arrival.

They seek some secluded place about the home where they pass the winter and are ready at the oncoming of spring to emerge from their winter quarters.

When they first come out they are sluggish and easily swatted. One swatted at this period may save thousands during the summer.

Doors and windows should be neatly screened at all dwellings, and every industrious farmer at this time should haul out the manure accumulated through the winter; but despite all these there will come some flies in the dwelling.

"A stitch in time saves nine." So swat the early fly.

Neglected Work of Producing Good Seeds

There is scarcely a county in all our territory in which two or three, or half a dozen, or even more, farmers who have the necessary knowledge, and the necessary patience and care for details, could not find profitable work in the growing of farm seeds of one kind or another. Better seeds than are now usually available could be grown in this way too. This work would seem to offer special attractions to young farmers who have had some training in scientific agriculture; but it is work that could be done by any intelligent farmer who would be willing to study and to experiment a little as well as to work faithfully at the task.

A big opportunity here is being taken very little advantage of.

Let Us Have Honesty in Clothing

There is before Congress a "Truth in Fabrics" bill; that is, a bill to compel the weavers of cloth and makers of clothing to state on each piece of cloth and each garment that contains wool just what percentage of cotton, of silk, of virgin wool, and of shoddy or reworked wool go to make it up. The bill is opposed, of course, but only by the persons interested in selling shoddy as virgin wool. Farmers seem to be practically unanimous for its passage, and they should be insistent upon it. It will be of great value to every sheep raiser, and a protection to every person who buys woolen clothing. Write your congressman and senators and ask them to support it.

How the Truck Helps Out

I have lots of hogs and cattle to sell. I find my large farm truck handy for hauling my hogs to market in. It is also handy for young calves to be carried in. I don't think any good farm should be without a truck to do its heavy hauling in. I find mine handy for most anything.

J. E. ARMES,

Heavy Work Requires Strong Hands

The farm labor supply remains short, and threatens to grow shorter. It must be met by the largest practical use of team-power and improved machinery. There is no other way to meet it. No farmer who can plow two furrows at a time should be content to plow one furrow; no farmer can afford to cultivate one side of a row at a time if he can find any means by which he can cultivate both sides. Heavier teams and more teams to the man; more mechanical motive power, larger and more efficient farm implements generally—all these are demanded as never before. This is the year of all years for the farmer to add to the strength of his hands by giving those hands control of more horse and mechanical power.

Plant White Corn in the South

On the Chicago market in 1918, under war conditions, when there was a great demand for pure white corn for milling purposes, No. 3 White corn sold for from 10 cents to 15 cents a bushel higher than No. 3 mixed corn. This past year it has sold for from 4 cents to 7 cents a bushel higher than the mixed corn.

Due to the larger demand in the South for pure white corn, particularly for milling purposes, many mills pay premium above the market price for pure white corn of a high grade, and the difference in price in Southern markets is always much greater than on the Chicago market. If there is plenty of white corn available the miller will not purchase this off-color corn at all, but let the feed dealer have it.

The South has always been a white corn country, and there is no reason why it should not continue to be so. Northern buyers have always looked to the Southern states for white corn, and with the increase in demand the last few years from Northern mills for white corn for milling purposes, there is no doubt that the premium on white corn over mixed corn will continue in Northern markets and develop to the same basis as in Southern markets.

C. E. BREHM,

Profit in Cornfield Beans

One of our most profitable crops is cornfield beans; we plant them in the corn at the first working and then they are worked when the corn is, and cost nothing but the seed, planting and gathering.

We only raise tender varieties, and we peddle them out in town and get a good price for them. What we don't sell green, we gather and hull out, put an advertisement in the papers and sell the surplus for seed, shipping by parcel post, receiving more than double the amount we could get in town for the beans if sold here.

MRS. A. C. H.

Sweet Potato Houses Still Needed

There has been much said in the last two years about sweet potato houses. The SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST has said a lot, as have other farm papers and other farm agencies. It might seem that enough had been said to let the subject rest awhile, yet the United States Department of Agriculture tells us only about 5 per cent of the crop is stored in houses, while about 50 per cent is put away in earth banks. The loss of the housed potatoes amounts to about 2 per cent; the loss of the banked potatoes to about 50 per cent. It would seem that talk about sweet potato houses is still in order.

Use Care in Bedding Sweet Potatoes

If you wish to have sound sweet potatoes next fall, it will pay to give attention to the potatoes bedded for seed this spring. Before the potatoes are bedded they should be carefully picked over, and all with black spots thrown out. The healthy seed should then be immersed for ten minutes in a solution of one ounce of mercuric chloride crystals to eight gallons of water, or for five minutes in a solution of one quart commercial (40 per cent) formaldehyde to fifty gallons of water. If potatoes are put into an old bed, care should be taken to remove all fragments of old potatoes and all soil that might have come in contact with them.

The Greatest Mistake a Farmer Can Make

The greatest mistake a farmer can possibly make is in putting every moment of his time in making market crops to the exclusion of home supplies, for man and beast, and yet 50 per cent of the farmers in this section are doing just that.

MRS. A. A. WATKINS,

Use Lime and Gather More Nitrogen

Here's something else about lime—the use of it on land planted to legumes greatly increases the amount of nitrogen taken from the air by the crops. Some experiments with soy beans conducted by the Wisconsin Experiment Station gave the following results: Total Nitrogen in crops—Untreated 148.5; inoculated 453.9; lime only 333.2;

lime and inoculation 511.7. Nitrogen taken from soil—Untreated 148.5; inoculated 130.4; only 161.4; lime and inoculation 122.7. Nitrogen taken from air—Untreated none; inoculated 323.5; lime only 171.8; lime and inoculation 389.0. The use of lime to grow legumes and grasses is one of the surest and cheapest means of increasing the nitrogen content of the soil.

Beauty Is Within Reach of Us All

If there is anything we all long to see, it is the South a land of beautiful homes, and it could be accomplished in a short time if we would all strive for it. We do not have to live in a mansion to have a beautiful home—some of the loveliest homes I ever knew were only tiny cabins surrounded by flowers.

Our woods are full of shrubs, flowers and ferns. There is no vine so lovely as the Virginia creeper and dogwood, redbud and sumac are beautiful on the lawn.

If your house is old and you intend building in a few years, whitewash the old one and surround it with vines and flowers. There is no land on earth half so beautiful as ours—let us make it a land of beautiful homes as well. Plant fruit trees, too, while you are about it.

Weber Wagon Value

At half price would you purchase any automobile in 60-inch track?

At half price could you sell to a farmer any automobile in 60-inch track?

Why mislead a farmer into buying a farm wagon that won't track with the automobile?

What better path could a wagon use than the one made as shown above?

When you purchase a Weber Farm Wagon you get more than just a farm wagon. That fact alone is worth looking into.

Some wagons are sold more for the purpose of making a sale and as large a profit as possible than for giving service.

Some dealers are antagonistic to the Standard Track (the one track for every section of the United States) for farm wagons; the 56-inch auto track (not wide or narrow) because they have not got the agency for the Weber.

Some dealers will talk a farmer into buying a 60-inch old-track farm wagon, but when such a dealer goes into the country on business or pleasure does he use a 60-inch track farm wagon, leaving his automobile at home because the 56-inch track is wrong? NO, he uses 56-inch track to go anywhere and everywhere.

Ask the dealers selling automobiles if they have any trouble selling 56-inch track—if they could sell automobiles in 60-inch track even at half price. The answer will be NO.

What track should your new farm wagon be? The Standard 56-inch track, which is neither wide nor narrow.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN
VOTERS FORM CLUBEighty-Seven Charter Members
Of Body Elect Mrs. Sam
Wilson President

The Woman's Democratic Club of Fayette County was organized at a rally in the Phoenix Hotel Friday afternoon with a charter membership of eighty-seven.

A keynote of the rally was an appeal by Mrs. Harrison G. Foster for party harmony and to heed the call for the county convention on May 1st, quoting a letter to all Democrats from Col. P. H. Callahan, Chairman of the State Administrative and Campaign Committees.

Miss Laura Clay urged prompt organization and acquaintance of the campaign issues. "We want to be so early in formulating our opinions that our attitude will be known when the state convention is held in Louisville May 4th.

Will Communicate Report

Communication of the report on the club's organization and its pledges of co-operation with the state organization was left to Mrs.
Foster and Mrs. A. M. Harrison, both members of the State Committee.

Officers of the Club are: Mrs.
Samuel M. Wilson, President; Mrs.
Arch Hamilton, Vice-President; representing the county; Mrs. George R. Hunt, Vice-President, representing the city; Mrs. Will D. Oldham,
Secretary and Miss Nancy Lewis
Green, Treasurer, Mrs. Powell Bosworth was elected Chairman of the membership committee.

A committee on resolutions, composed of Miss Laetitia McCauley and Miss Catherine Christian proposed the following platform, which was adopted unanimously:

Platform is adopted

The platform follows:
"Recognizing that the principle of woman suffrage was definitely accepted by the people of these United States in 1916 when all political parties endorsed it in their national platform, we as women of Kentucky take this occasion to express to all parties our grateful acknowledgment of the gift of presidential suffrage by the action of the General Assembly of Kentucky in 1920;

"We accept the necessity of party organization to direct public action;
and therefore under the responsibility of citizenship inherent in the right to help choose the President and Vice-President of these United States, we affiliate ourselves with the Democratic party with the purpose of uniting with others of that party in forwarding the candidacy of the best men for the offices without faction or prejudice; of maintaining the inviolability of the Constitution of these United States;
and of standing for America for Americans."

TOBACCO MEN PRO-TEST ON 50 CENTS TAX

Henderson, Ky., April 30.—The city council in called session passed the annual special licenses tax ordinance, placing a tax on practically all businesses, professions and occupations in the city.

The ordinance is virtually the same as the one adopted last year, with the exception that the following will be taxed: Civil engineers, $10; stock salesmen, $200; boxing exhibitions, $25; rent collectors and collecting agencies $10; loan companies, $200.

The ordinance provides a tax of 50 cents a thousand pounds on tobacco. Last year the tax was 7-1-2 cents a thousand pounds. The increase was made because the last legislature reduced the ad valorem tax on tobacco from $1.65 on the $100 to only 15 cents. The tobacco dealers appeared to request that the tax be placed at 25 cents the same as Owensboro. Mayor Johnson appointed a committee composed of Smith, Hall and Eaves to meet the dealers next Monday night to discuss the matter.

New Matrimonial Idea.

Connecticut has a married couple living apart in two towns, the bride, who has advanced ideas, in one town, and the bridegroom, who has a good job and a big salary, in another. They decided to live in separate establish-week-ends or run away together, as one of them explains it, for several days whenever the mood seizes them.

They have rented a third apartment in New York city, which they will share "in their play time." The bride retains her maiden name and title of Miss. It is her idea that man and wife should not live in the same house, and so get a surfeit of each other.—

do good work for you right from the start, and year after year.
It is our aim to give full earning power every time we sell a farm implement. That is why we buy from firms that take every care to maintain their reputation for making only good implements.
That is why we handle the following lines: John Deere Plow Company, Fairbanks, Morse & Co., De Laval Separator Co., Hercules Gas Engine and Buggy Co., Simmons Hardware Company, Owensboro Wagon Co., Malleable Machinery Co. They have, by selling QUALITY, forged ahead and have stood the test of time while others making a cheaper grade (just as good) have failed and are forgotten. Your repair question is solved when you buy from us for you can always get repairs. Did you ever buy and off brand and later try to get repairs? Use your best judgment and see us before you buy.

In the Spring Time

Any fool knows enough to carry an umbrella when it rains, but the wise man is he who carries one when it is only cloudy.
Any man will send for a doctor
when he gets bedfast, but the wiser one is he who adopts proper measures before his ills become serious. During a hard winter or the following spring one feels run-down, tired out, weak and nervous. Probably you have suffered from a cold, the Grip or flu, which has left you thin, weak and pale. This is the time to put your system in order. It is time for house-cleaning.

A good, old-fashioned alterative and temperance tonic is one made of wild roots and barks, without the use of alcohol, and called Dr.
Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form. This is nature's tonic, which restores the tone of the stomach, activity of the liver and steadiness to the nerves, strengthening the whole system. First put up by Dr. Pierce over 50 years ago, now procurable at any drug store; or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.
